Today's Message:

He Is Coming

Today, we begin the season of Advent. For the children of Israel, it was a time of suffering. God was seemingly silent. There were no more prophets. There were no angels boldly declaring the words of the Lord. There was persecution. There was hardship. There was difficulty. There was suffering and a continual cry of, "How long, O Lord, must we wait?" In the season of Advent, in this season of waiting, and in the context of a people longing and waiting for God to speak again, we wait with hope and anticipation of "bumping into God." Join us as we engage God's Word.

Welcome to The First Church of the Nazarene!
A warm welcome is extended to our guests this morning!
May you sense God's presence here as we worship together through the Word, prayer and music.

Please take a moment to complete the Staying Connected Card in the back of the sanctuary chairs so we can best connect with you. We are very glad to have you with us today!
